

StrutFoot's HD system is predominantly used for large Air Handling Units and Chillers. Each system is manufactured in house enabling us to make the design suit the unit being supported.

The system has been designed using heavy duty 41x82 hot dipped galvanised channel. It has been designed for heavy loads, cable management and pipe work which can all be easily installed into the channel system.

